

Purbeck Society

“The Real Treasures are The Real Stories”

A talk by Nick Reed.

2.30pm Friday 12th Nov. The Mowlem,
Swanage

Local diver and amateur historian, Nick Reed, will talk about three wartime wrecks that lie close to Swanage. Two, the Kyarra, and the Arfon, were sunk in WW1, while the Carentan was sunk in 1943.

Nick, will explore the history of the vessels, their sinking and will look at the stories that his research has revealed.

Members free, non members £3 doors open at 2pm